

Dr Linda Maoyi
South African Medical Research Council

Dr Linda Maoyi is an experienced data analytics professional with a demonstrated history of working in various industries, solving various data extraction, manipulation, analysis and reporting problems. His role at SAPRIN consists of developing and maintaining the SAPRIN cloud infrastructure, data repository, production of longitudinal harmonised datasets and oversee the adoption of common data quality assurance measures and methods.