

Mr May Mochaena Maile
Council for Scientific and Industrial Research

May Mochaena Maile was born and bred in Burgersfort which is a small town in Limpopo. He is a married father of four. He completed his matric in 1999 and went to further his studies at the University Johannesburg. He obtained a National Diploma in Information Technology in the year 2006. He worked for Accenture, BCX and then joined telecommunication companies including MTN, Telkom and Vodacom. He also was previously employed by Wits University, SAQA and SITA. In addition to his qualifications, he obtained a B Tech degree in Information Management with the Tshwane University of Technology and currently busy with an honours degree in Informatics with the University of South Africa. He is currently an employee at CSIR